RESPONSE TO OFFICE ACTION

Dear Sir,

Responsive to the Office Action mailed October 1, 2002, please consider the following amendment and remarks:

REMARKS/ARGUMENTS

The present invention, in its several embodiments, is a golf scorecard and golf playing booklet for assisting players in playing a round of golf including a rectangular sheet of foldable material, having a series of panels created by a plurality of substantially parallel primary folds that permit panels to be foldably arranged, one atop another, into a highly portable booklet of panels. The present invention includes, in its several embodiments, an insert for instructions regarding use of the booklet and course play that may be withdrawn in a sliding fashion and reinserted by the user.
